

Memorial Hospital of South Bend®

Contact:

Maggie Scroope
(574) 647-3234

mscroope@memorialsb.org

July 15, 2010

Kristen Pflipsen
(303) 746-0443

kristen.pflipsen@collegefootball.org

Football Hall of Fame partners with Memorial Hospital to present Legends Autograph Session: Tackling Breast Cancer

The College Football Hall of Fame will partner with Memorial Hospital to present Legends Autograph Session: Tackling Breast Cancer in conjunction with the annual Enshrinement Festival Downtown Block Party on July 16 at 5:30 p.m. on the Gridiron Plaza. The returning Hall of Famers and other football legends come together for an autograph session to raise awareness and funds for Memorial Regional Breast Care Center. The autograph session will feature nine gridiron sensations including:

- George Bork: Northern Illinois University (1960-63)
- Billy Cannon: Louisiana State (1957-59) Heisman Trophy Winner (1959)
- Mike Golic: Notre Dame (1981-1984), ESPN Radio host and analyst
- George Koonce: East Carolina Univ. (1988-1992), Super Bowl Champion (1996)
- Jack Lengyel: Coach of Marshall University (1971-74)
- Fred Martinelli: Coach of Ashland University (1959-93)
- Jesse Palmer: University of Florida (1997-2000), ESPN College studio host
- Johnny Rodgers: Univ. of Nebraska (1970-72), Heisman Trophy Winner (1972)
- Freddie Scott: Amherst (1971-73)

“We are honored to bring these football legends to the Hall of Fame to support both Memorial Regional Breast Care Center and the Hall of Fame,” College Football Hall of Fame Executive Director Lisa Klunder “Each of these notable players and coaches has contributed immensely to the sport and this will undoubtedly be a memorable event for any football fan.”

For tickets to the Legends Autograph Session: Tackling Breast Cancer or more information on the 2010 Enshrinement Festival, please visit www.enshrinementfestival.org or call 574-235-5717.

###